

Dear Transportation Stakeholder:

I want to remind you that the T-WORKS Workshops that were announced last month will begin next week.

We will be hosting four in-person workshops and one webinar over the next three weeks to provide information about T-WORKS and to help communities and individuals get organized for the local consult meetings which will be held in each KDOT district this fall.

The same information will be presented at each workshop, which will include an overview of T-WORKS, an update on the Local Consult process, as well as concurrent sessions on: Local Consult, Practical Improvement, Fund Exchange, Aviation, Transit, Rail and Economic Development.

The workshops will be held:
